

Bounty

Grey – Gelding – (just under) 16.2hh – 2008

Heigh Ho Silver X Glidawn Diamond

Bounty is an exquisitely bred and very eye-catching Irish gelding that is sure to catch anyone's eye out and about.

He has competed Novice level (including qualifying for area festivals) and is training Elementary. He has done show jumping and cross-country schooling (with a 16-year-old girl) and has been hacking out in open fields and in the New Forest alone and in groups (including group canters). Previous owner has done lots of clinics including pole work and dressage.

He loves pampering and cuddles and is incredibly easy to handle.
